Main conference room

Seating

Seating is laid out "Theatre Style" with a wide aisle between blocks of seating either side.

Spaces are reserved for wheelchairs, scooter or mobility frame users in the last three rows next to the aisle.

The back row has extra legroom for those that need it.

Lighting

The main conference room is well lit, but lighting is turned down in the seating areas during presentations.

Sound

All people speaking on stage will have a microphone and speaker.

There will be no unneeded background music.

Seating is available near the stage for lip-reading.

Our guests are asked to avoid contributing to background noise.

Guest with involuntary vocalisations such as echolalia are welcome to come and be themselves.

Accessible toilets

There is 1 accessible toilet. It is a short distance from the main conference room on the corridor between reception area and the exhibition hall.

Service animals

Service animals are welcomed. Fresh water is provided on request. Please ask any member of Learning Disability Wales staff on the day.

Quiet room

A quiet room is available for all our guests to use.

You can find the Tegid room along the corridor off the reception area.

The quiet room is wheelchair accessible.
