

Would you like to get out more and do the things you love?

A gig buddy can help you go to gigs and events that you may find difficult to attend.

A 'gig' can be a concert or a festival. But it can also be a rugby match, a drag show, a trip to a museum or theme park, or a visit to the beach...

We can find you a gig buddy if you live in:

- South Wales – Cardiff, Swansea, Neath and Port Talbot
- North Wales - Anglesey, Conwy, Denbighshire, Flintshire, Gwynedd, Wrexham.

Your gig buddy could be a Football Buddy, a Theatre Buddy, a Dancing Buddy, a Rambling Buddy, a Quiz Buddy, a Roller Skating Buddy, a Surfing Buddy.....

It's up to you to tell us what type of gig buddy you want!

I'm interested. What does a gig buddy do?

A gig buddy is a volunteer who shares the same interests in music or hobbies as you. They can support you to go to gigs and events that are sometimes hard to get to.

A gig buddy can help you:

- Go to 1 gig or event every month.
- Meet up every month to plan your next gig.
- Go to our social events with other gig buddies.

Getting a gig buddy is free – it doesn't cost you anything.

All gig buddy volunteers get free training before they are matched with their gig buddy.

We make sure gig buddy volunteers have a police check to make sure they are safe and good people.

I like the sound of this! How do I get a gig buddy?

All you need to do is fill out an easy read application form and send it to the Gig Buddies team. You can get a form by emailing or calling us.

The form asks you things like what hobbies and interests you have and what support needs you have.

After we get your form we will contact you and arrange to meet you for a chat so we can find out more about you.

Then we can start to find a gig buddy to match you with! This could take a long time as we wait for the right person to come along.
