

Learning Disability Wales
Anabledd Dysgu Cymru

All Wales personalised technology
community of practice

Terms of reference

Aims and objectives

- To promote the ethical use of personalised technology.
- To promote independence, choice and control for people with a learning disability through the person centred use of technology.

What the group will do

- Promote the use of personalised technology
- Collaborate and share good practice
- Decide its priorities of work
- Collaborate on agreed actions to achieve desired outcomes within specified timescales.

How the group will do it

- Meet quarterly as well as conducting work electronically
- Be hosted and steered by Learning Disability Wales who will take minutes at all meetings
- Encourage collaboration with stakeholders.
- Will comprise of representatives with the ability to contribute project related activities from the following groups:
 - commissioners
 - education
 - employment
 - family carers
 - health
 - housing
 - people with a learning disability
 - self-advocacy
 - support providers
 - transport
 - research
 - Welsh Government

www.ldw.org.uk

029 2068 1160

enquiries@ldw.org.uk

October 2019