

Using photos and videos

We have the right to use any photos or videos we take during the workshops. We do not need your consent to use them, even if you are in them.

We will use photos and videos for things like brochures, invitations, books, newspapers, magazines, TV, and websites.

If you are coming to one of our workshops and you do not want to be in any photos or videos, please tell the person taking the photo or video.

You can also e-mail Tarah.cooke@wales.nhs.uk to say you do not want to be in photos or videos before the workshop.

Send a photo of yourself so we know what you look like. We will keep this image safe and private and will only use it to know who you are.

If you come to one of our workshops and you have not told us that you do not want to be in any photos or videos, you are agreeing to us using your picture or vide. And you cannot make a claim against us if we do use it.

Only organisations we work with can use our photos and videos. No other organisations may use, copy, or change our photos, videos without our permission.

Thank you for your understanding and support!
