

Person Specification for Chair

The skills below we believe are important for our Chair. Please tell about the ones you meet in your application. These will be explored further at interview.

Personal Qualities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a strong commitment to LDW mission - able to work with and collaborate with others - able to commit time to the organisation - good communication and interpersonal skills - be empathetic, respectful, impartial, objective, fair and non-judgemental
Experience	Experience of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - chairing meetings - representing an organisation at a national level - public speaking - managing people - campaigning for change
Knowledge and skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - an understanding of the barriers and challenges faced by people with a learning disability/autism and their family carers - knowledge of the social care sector and learning disability policies and legislation in Wales - an understanding of the Welsh political environment - a good understanding of charity law and governance issues - able to speak Welsh - proven leadership ability - good listening skills and ability to synthesise diverse views & agendas. - able to relate to a wide variety of audiences - able to build and maintain effective and positive relationships with a wide range of stakeholders.